PROCLAMATION

For a Day of Thanksgiving and Praise by Richard J. Oglesby, Governor of Illinois.

The people of the State of Illinois, in common with the people of the United States, acknowledge the power, the goodness, and the never-ceasing providence of Almighty God. Their prayers are not loud and Father, and we are His children. He holds in His hands the destinies of men—as He did the day that God created man, in the beginning of God's work. He has, in His own way, and by means known only to Himself, been leading us through a period of fearful suffering in the lake. After the ground for an hour, He suffered blindness and death to stalk through the country. That he has done so in love, and unfaltering faith in the ultimate success of the right, is attested by the many blessings which He has showered upon us. He has softened the hearts of our enemies, and made it as lively for them on board the Mississippi as for us. He has brought us to see in the Union a thing worth fighting for, and to love it more than ever before. He has given us victory in battle, and has crowned us with the blessings of peace at home. He has given us victory in Canada, and has softened the hearts of our enemies there, so that we can now live as friends with them.

It is said in the London Times that on the day of the coronation of Norland, a subject of mourning will be worn by the nobility, in consequence of the death of the late Emperor Maximilian. It is said that the new Queen of Norland will be the youngest and fairest ever crowned. Her name is Alexandra, and she is the daughter of the late King of Denmark.

The Pope, it is said, objects to any reforms whatever, and the powers which have interfered in the affairs of Rome are divided on the question of the temporal power of the Pope. Spain is said to be the only power that stands out for the temporal power of the Pope in any event, and the question will have to be settled Broad way, if it is to be settled at all, without a solution. The Pope's troops are said to be about 8,000 strong. Mr. Monroe stood well. Election paymaster at last election, and has already been a candidate for Governor and Congress. He is a native of Monroe county, and has always been a resident of the State. He has the majority in the State of Ohio, and the majority in the vote for members of Congress. SPORTING.

The Deadly Glossary Fight—The Place—The Stakes all In—Condition of the Men.

Sporting Exhibition—Duffy's Benefit.

Walton's Pedestrian Feat—A Novel Proposal.

Interesting Trotting Match—Skating, &c.

THE LONG-ANTICIPATED prize fight between Andy Duffy and Fred. Beasley, of this city, for a stake of $1,000, which has been more anxiously and eagerly looked for by the sporting fraternity, would not take place on Wednesday next, but will be fought on Wednesday night. Two trains of cars will leave the Chicago & Rock Island depot, one at 7 o'clock in the morning, and the other at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for Geneva, Illinois, where the fight will take place. The exact spot has not been decided upon, but will be somewhere between Geneva and Batavia, on the West Madison and Canal street, at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Tickets are on sale at the Metropolitan Hotel, and will be sold only at the close of his exhibition.

Coburn will take a benefit on Thursday evening next, at Kelly's Varieties, when he will appear in a number of his most skilled pugilistic feats.

OTHER FIGHTS IN PROSPECT.

A number of other fights are being discussed in this city at present, though no approach to a definite arrangement has been made to any of them. Among the most prominent of these is one in the city, anxious to make a match with Pitzgerald, of Chicago, for a stake of $1,000 a side. Fitzgerald is ready with the money and other details, and Mr. Ward has not yet secured funds sufficient.

Tommy Bowen, of Chicago, and Corbin, of Cincinnati, are matched to fight for $1,000 a side, and will meet in this city on Thursday next. Both are in good condition, and will do their best to win.

Tommy Kennedy, of Chicago, and Stanley
